MEMORIAL DAY AT NATIONAL CAPITAL

Exercises Were on More Elaborate Scale Than Usual.

ALL BUSINESS WAS SUSPENDED

People of All Classes United in Paying Tribute to the Heroic Dead in Eight National Cemeteries—Confederates Honored.

Washington, May 30.—With solemn and impersaive services memorial day was observed in the national capital on a more elaborate scale than usual.

Business was suspended throughout the city, and people from all classes united in perpetuating the memory of the thousands of heroic dead in the eight national cemeteries in the vicinity of Washington. Notwithstanding the absence from the city of the president, who has been a conspicuous figure in several previous memorial day exercises at the national cemetery at Arlington. The exercises there were under the direction of the Grand Army, Spanish War veterans, Army and Navy of the union, Sons of Veterans and the various women's auxiliaries, and included a parade of the G. A. R. posts, Spanish War Veterans and other patriotic organization and the militia of the District of Columbia, headed by the United States marine bands.

At Arlington, overlooking the Potomac ,the principal exercises occurred. There the patriotic organizations, formed in line and at the gates, were greeted by a national salute. The 18,000 graves in the cemetery were strewn with flowers and each grave marked by a tiny American flag. A touching feature of the ceremony was the decoration of graves in the part of the cemetery where lie the confederate dead. The tomb of the 'Unknown Dead" was decorated by a special committee, and there the marine band rendered a dirge, the same program being followed in the section allotted to the Spanish dead. At the amphitheater, with a large crowd present, impressive services for the soldier dead were conducted. The program included President Lincoln's Gettysburg address read by Rev. H. N. Couden, chaplain of the United States house of representatives, and several choral numbers. The oration was delivered by Comrade Jas. Tanner, past commander in chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. Immediately following the services the unveiling of a monument to the memory of Major General Joseph A. Mower by the Army of the Tennessee, took place unde rthe auspices of that society. United States Senator Warner, of Missouri, presided. Former United States Senator John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, was the orator of the day at the exercises held at the Brightwood cemetery. Under the auspices of the various posts of the G. A. R. memorial exercises were held in the District of Columbia, at the Soldiers' Home, Holy Rood, Mount Olivet, Glenwood, St. Elizabeth asylum, Rock Creek, Harmony, Prospect Hill, St. Marys and the battleground cemeteries. Official programs were carried out at each cemetery. Isolated graves were also honored.

At Nashville, Tenn.

Nashville, May 31.—Memorial exercises were held Thursday at the National cemeteries near this city and near Murfreesboro. The services at the cemetery were attended by white peopl, while negroes took part in the program observed near Murfreesboro. The usual decoration day programs were observed. Ex-Congressman Pettibone was the principal speaker at the Nashville cemetery.

At Chattanooga, Tenn.

Chattanooga, May 31.—A squadron and the band of the Twelfth cavalry stationed at Fort Oglethorpe participated in the Memorial day services at the National cemetery in this city. The cemetery contains nearly 14,000 graves from the battlefields of Chickamauga, Missionary Ridge, Lookout Mountain and Wauhatchie, and those of scores of men who died in Camp Thomas during the Spanish-American war.

ULTIMATUM GIVEN.

Drastic Action Taken By Birmingham Trades Council.

Birmingham, Ala., May 31.—The Birmingham Trades Council, at a huge meeting Wednesday night, issued an ultimatum to the Birmingham Railway, Light and Power company to reinstate the locked out motormen and conductors by 12 o'clock Monday morning or every man in the district carrying a card will be called out at that time.

The meeting was supposed to be made up of the executive committees of all of the various union organizations in the district and no one was admitted who did not present a union card at the door. There has been a strong movement in favor of a sympathetic strike for several days, which had its culmination in the action of the meeting. Numerous resolutions forbidding members to ride on the street cars or to use gas or electricity, this step being taken with the object in view of crippling the Birmingham Railway, Light and Power company.

If all of the union men in the district obey the orders of the Trades Council, something over 15,000 men will quit work Monday. It is understood, however, that a number of unions are not in sympathy with such drastic action and will not fall in line. Notable among these is the Typographical union, which received orders from the International union not to take part in the sympathetic strike.

Newest Railroad System.

Atlanta, May 31.—The annual tax returns of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic, Georgia's newest railroad system, were filed Wednesday with Comptroller General W. A. Wright. The system gives in a total valuation of $4,496,312, of which $711,736 is franchise. The company this year has in operation 413.8 miles, as against 375.13 last year. The Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic has outstanding $8,189,700 of preferred and $16,170.70 of common stock, besides $6,761,891 of bonds and other indebtedness. The result of its operations last year, after paying interest and taxes, together with operating expenses, was only $51,155 net, with which to pay dividends on stock. The company's returns last year were $3,257,332, this year's total thus showing an increase of $1,239.80.

Mayors Meet in Albany Next.

Athens, Ga., May 31.—The next session of the Georgia League of Municipalities will be held in the city of Albany, that place having been chosen over Columbus, and the choice then made unanimous. On motion of Mayor Chapple, of Columbus, the date of the session will be named later. The feature of the session on Wednesday was the address of Congressman Thomas W. Hardwick, who spoke of the increasing tendency of the negroes to move to the cities of the state and the consequent menace to good order. He declared that the only solution of the problem lay in the prohibition of the sale of liquor to negroes anywhere in Georgia, and that he hoped to see the legislature pass a law to that effect. Mr. Hardwick received a rising vote of thanks for his address and it was ordered printed at once for distribution.

$50,000 Given Agnes Scott.

Decatur, Ga., May 31.—At the close of the graduation exercises at Agnes Scott Wednesday it was announced by Hon. C. M. Candler that S. M. Inman had offered to give the institution $50,000, provided the friends of the school would raise an equal amount. It is probable that plans will be put in active operation at once to secure the $50,000 needed to make good Mr. Inman's offer.

New York Hotel Porters Strike

New York, May 31.—The hotel porters who have been talking strike for several weeks, quit Wednesday in twenty of the largest hotels. They demand all the tips, which, under the present system they have to divide with the head waiters, and a minimum wage scale of $25 a month.

STATUE TO GENERAL LAWTON IS UNVEILED

He Served With Distinction In the Philippines.

WAS KILLED AT SAN MATEO

In Spanish-American War He Gained the Rank of Lieutenant-Colonel and Was Made Major General of Volunteers.

Indianapolis, May 31.—The monument to Major General Henry W. Lawton, which was unveiled Thursday immediately preceding the address of President Roosevelt, is the result of the work of the Lawton Monument commission formed in 1900 a little while after the death of General Lawton in the Philippines.

The Commercial club and the board of trade co-operated in the formation of a committee which raised by popular subscriptions $6,000. Daniel Chester French, of New York, was selected to have charge of the creation of the statue. The work was done partly by an American student Andrew O'Connor, who acted as Mr. French's assistant. The monument stands on the grounds of the Marion county court house at Washington and Delaware streets, facing southwest. The bronze figure is nine feet high, standing on a stone pedestal six feet in height. The standing figure is the typical general in command.

Major Henry Ware Lawton, who was killed at San Mateo, Philippine Islands, Dec. 19, 1899, was born at Manhattan, O., March 15, 1843, and while a boy came to Indiana with his father, George Lawton, who was a millwright. The Lawtons moved to Allen county, near Fort Wayne. He enlisted in the Thirtieth Indiana regiment in 1861, and was mustered out in 1865 as captain of his company. He re-enlisted in the regular army as a second lieutenant, was transferred to the Fourth cavalry in 1871, and in 1879 was made a captain. He served with distinction in 1876 against the Sioux Indians, in 1879 against the Utes, and in 1886 against Geronimo, whom he captured in Mexico. In the Spanish-American war he gained the rank of lieutenant-colonel, and was made a major general of volunteers. He commanded a division before Santiago, was transferred to a command in the Philippines, captured Santa Cruz, a Filipino stronghold, April 10, 1899, gained another victory at San Isidro and was placed in command at Manila. In the autumn of 1899 he lead a campaign against Aguinaldo, which resulted in his death on the firing line by a Filipino bullet. He leaves a widow and three daughters, Misses Francis and Katherine and Louise Lawton, who live in the state of Kentucky.

REBELS LOSE 100 MEN.

Severe Engagement Between Provincial Troops and Malcontents.

Canton, China, May 31.—A severe engagement has occurred between the provincial troops and a body of rebels, resulting in a victory for the former, the rebels lost more than a hundred men killed and the government forces captured the rebel leader, together with a number of flags and a considerable quantity of ammunition.

Two thousand additional troops have been dispatched to Chaochu, where the malcontents are active. The Chinese gunboat Sum Hong, having on board the fifteenth regiment of Chinese troops, has sailed from Swatow.

Demand Removal Police Commission.

San Francisco, May 31.—The Call says that the commercial interests of San Francisco have formally demanded the removal of the incumbent police commission. The demand made on Mayor Schmitz Wednesday also involves the appointment of a police commission from a list of names selected by that body of citizens, which is practically the rejuvenated and enlarged committee of fifty originally appointed by the mayor himself. Accompanying the formal demand for the removal of the police committee was a list of names from which the mayor is expected to select the new board.

GIRL WAS CRUELLY SLAIN.

Suspect Wailed When Taken Into the Dead Girl's Presence.

Elmhurst, L. I., May 31.—So terrific was the crime against Amelia Stanfeldt, 15 years old, who was murdered in a field, that Henry Becker, under arrest as her slayer, is making his confessions piecemeal.

A few days ago the innocent young girl went out to pick dandelion greens and she was later found dead, stabbed and mutilated with a case-knife she had taken along to dig up the greens.

Becker was arrested as a suspect. Extreme measures were used to make him talk. He was dragged into the undertaking shop where the child's body lay. A detective laid Becker's trembling hand on the cold, white forehead of the victim. The ordeal was too much for Becker.

"Yes, I saw her killed," he wailed, "but I did not do it. Oh, poor little girl! Oh, that she were alive again!"

The prisoner put the crime upon an unknown man. The police were not satisfied with his story. Then, it is said, he admitted the crime. He said he had been sleeping in the field when he saw the girl. He made advances to her, and when she threatened to call a policeman he hit her in the back of the head with a stone and attacked her with the knife.

COTTON CONGRESS ADJOURNS.

Vienna, May 31—The international cotton congress, concluded its sessions Wednesday. Resolutions were adopted expressing satisfaction with the promises of the American growers to co-operate in measure for the cheapening of the transit of cotton, approving that the utmost support be given to all countries engaged in extending their area of cotton production and accepting an invitation to hold the next congress in France.

Harvie Jordan, one of the American delegates, said that his colleagues were greatly satisfied with the results of the congress. He thought the resodutions adopted would have a favorable influence on the American cotton business, especially the resolution in favor of compression at the ginneries or at initial points, as this would help avoid delays in transportation.

Mr. Jordan invited the members of the congress, in the name of the mayor of Atlanta, Ga., to participate in the international cotton congress to be held in that city in October, 1907. About one hundred delegates accepted the invitation.

Reward for Heroism.

Clarksville, Tenn., May 31.—Chas. Arms, a ferryman at this place, has been awarded a gold medal and $1,000 by the postoffice department for heroism displayed in rescuing three men from drowning. Nearly one year ago a passenger train plunged into the Cumberland river from a drawbridge, which had been left open at this point. The express messenger and the engineer were killed. Two mail clerks and the baggagemaster clung to the wrecked cars which floated down the river, and Arms, hearing their cries for help, sprang from a bed, though ill with fever, and, barefooted and half dressed, ran to the river. Four men were standing on the bank, making no effort at rescue, when he jumped into a skiff and pulled out the imperiled trio, saving them.

Attempt on Bishop's Life.

Luberlin, Russia, May 31.—An attempt was made Wednesday to assassinate Bishop Yateshevsky, of the Catholic church. A man who subsequently was identified as a socialist agitator who had twice been imprisoned, fired several shots from a revolver at the bishop while the latter was walking through a street and then attacked him with a dagger. The bishop's life was saved by a priest who sprang between him and the would-be assassin, who was captured by the police.

GRAY LEGIONS AGAIN SWARM IN RICHMOND

Thousands of Veterans and Visitors In that City.

OLD SOLDIERS AGAIN RALLY

Seventeenth Annual Reunion of the United Confederate Veterans Is Now Being Held in the Virginia State Capital.

Richmond, Va., May 31.—Once more the confederate battleflag is unfurled upon the heights of Richmond, and again the spirit of the old south asserts itself in the ancient citadel of its memories. The seventeeth annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans is being held in Richmond and it is estimated that no less than a hundred thousand strangers will gather within the gates of this great city with the next few days. great city with the next few days. mond, and the confederates are falling in line—marching from the clover dales of the Rappahannock, from the historic hills of Virginia, the pebble shores of Sumter, the pine forests of the Old North State, the blue-topped mountains of Tennessee, the old red hills of Georgia, the cotton fields of Alabama, the great valley of the Mississippi and from the cactus blooming plains of Texas—flocking from out this vast land of Dixie the boys in gray are rallying once more around the shattered flag staff of the southern cross.

General Stephen S. Lee is the ranking officers; General Cabell, of Texas, is second and General Walker, of South Carolina, is third in command.

Everybody is looking forward with great interest to the address of welcome to be delivered by Major John W. Daniel, the United States senator from Virginia and known as the "Lame Lion of Lynchburg."

Open house is being kept throughout the city for the gray-clad visitors and their friends, and in addition a regular camp which has been named Camp "John W. Gordon," in honor of the chief marshal of the Stuart parade of Friday, has been established just west of the city, and here some 5,000 of the visiting veterans will be entertained free of all charge, and enjoy the pleasure of tenting again on the old camp grounds.

Friday afternoon the equestrian statue of General J. E. B. Stewart, erected by the cavalry veterans of the south, will be unveiled, and later the memorial day exercises at Hollywood cemetery will be held. Monday next, June 3, the monument erected by the people of the south to Jefferson Davis will be unveiled, and this will be the occasion of another notable parade.

The matter of chief moment to come before the present reunion, it is thought, will be the question of a suitable memorial to the women of the south in the period of the war between the states.

Famine Has Been Broken.

Shanghai, May 31.—The famine which has prevailed for many weeks, causing hundreds of deaths and great suffering, has been broken. The crops are still thin, but the hot weather of the past months has been favorable to a good yield. American gifts have supplied milk regularly to 1,000 babies at the Hsu Chou Fu temple, while 200 more have been nourished occasionally.

Americans Honor LaFayette.

Paris, May 31.—The customary memorial services at the grave of LaFayette were not held Thursday, but Consul General Mason and a number of the American colony visited the Picpus cemetery and decorated the tomb with flowers.

Refuse Members Passage.

St. Petersburg, May 31.—Instructions have been issued through the Russian consulate in London to the Russian steamship lines to refuse passage to the social democratic members of the lower house of parliament who have been holding a congress at the British capital.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

S. A. Hussey, a well-known carpenter and contractor of Archer, was among those who spent yesterday in Gainesville on business.

Gus A. Morton of Willston, one of the most widely known citizens of Levy county, was registered at the Brown House yesterday. It will be remembered that Mr. Morton was a candidate for State Senator at the election in Levy county to succeed Senator Carter, deceased, and of the three candidates came within only a score of votes being elected. He has entered suit against John F. Jackson of Levy county for alleged slander during the campaign, which was a three-cornered and a heated one. Mr. Morton is quite popular in his county.

He states, however, that he proposes to resume business as soon as possible upon a more extensive scale, and will erect a new building as soon as he can secure the material and labor.

Captain Neal states that the people of Newberry feel encouraged. They still have confidence in the future of the metropolis of the phosphate belt, and as a rule will rebuild, erecting finer and more attractive buildings.

FRANCIS MULBERRY MAY BE TRIED TODAY

CAUSED DEATH BY DRUGS

Was Dying Statement of Victim, Queen Clements, Who Confessed to Justice Colman—Mulberry Woman Looked Upon With Superstition.

Francis Mulberry, the aged colored woman who is charged with a most serious offense, that of causing the death of Queen Clements, colored, twenty years of age, by administering drugs in an attempt to effect a criminal operation, will probably be arraigned in Justice Colman's court today.

The woman appeared in the court yesterday, and furnished the justice with the name of a number of persons she desired summoned as witnesses for the defense. The justice has not yet decided whether he will conduct the preliminary hearing today or Monday.

The case is likely to attract considerable attention. The most important testimony against the Mulberry woman is the dying declaration of the victim. When she was so near death's door that she could hear the creaking of the hinges, she consented to talk to Justice Colman, in the presence of a witness, and, as has already been stated in The Sun, said that she had unveiled her secret to the Mulberry woman, who told her not to worry, that she would remedy all, and that the Mulberry woman gave her medicine to take which resulted ultimately in her death, although the medicine brought about the desired effect.

This is not the first time the Mulberry woman has been arrested under the same charge, having been once before in jail. Owing to lack of evidence, however, she was released, since which time she has remained unmolested by the law in a little hut in the extreme western suburb of the city.

The negroes as a rule, especially the old-timers, look upon this Mulberry woman with an air of superstition. She walks with a long stick at times, resembling very much the picture we see of a witch, only in Ethiopian form. The older and more superstitious of the negro race believe that she is a "conjurer," a person possessed of mysterious unseen power, and for that reason she has been given a clean berth.

Dutton, C. W. Chase, J. H. Vidal, S. J. Thomas and J. B. Padgett, well-known business men in this city and county, who will organize a banking company to be conducted in this building. In order that there may be no discontinuance of the banking business in this building, we have decided to continue our business until the organization of the new company and we respectively ask our friends and patrons who have so kindly done business with us to continue their business with the new firm. It will be managed by wise and conservative business men whom we have known in a business way for years, and we bespeak for them a liberal patronage. As advised in our circular letter of the 18th, all checks will be paid without interruption, and certificates of deposits redeemed, with interest, on presentation.

A Week in Social Whirl of That Town, Embracing Many Functions.

High Springs, May 31.—Mrs. M. P. Summers gave a card party Thursday evening, which was one of the most delightful social events of gay High Springs. The popular "500" was the game played, and Miss Maude Thomas won first prize and H. Salls the gentleman's prize. Elegant refreshments weer served. Those present were Mrs. J. H. Salls, Mrs. Ethel Warren, Mrs. Killibrew, Miss Maude Thomas, Miss Abbie Barrs, Mrs. H. McL. Grady, Mrs. M. P. Summers, Mrs. Leon Hatchell, Mr. Russell Frinke, Messrs. J. H. Miss Abbie Barrs has returned from Sutherland College, where she recently graduated.

On the evening of May 29th the Pythian Sisters initiated into the mysteries of their order P. P. Wood and Mr. Simpson. Anderson have been received and they will be initiated in the near future.

Miss Murry Futch and Miss Annie Lou Hodges are in Gainesville, where they went to attend the commencement ball.

Baseball Players and Foot Racers.

Louis J. Kruger, ex-champion long distance foot racer of Germany and Holland, writes, Oct. 27, 1901: "During my training of eight weeks' foot races at Salt Lake City, in April last, I used Ballard's Snow Liniment to my greatest satisfaction. Therefore, I highly recommend Snow Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises or rheumatism." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

FUNERAL OF MRS. McKINLEY.

Services Over Body Were Simple. President Roosevelt Present.

Canton, O., May 31.—The body of Mrs. Ida Saxton McKinley rests beside that of her distinguished husband in West Lawn cemetery. Her last words, "Oh God, why should I longer wait? Let me lie beside him," have been answered.

The funeral services, held at the old-fashioned McKinley home, were extremely simple. Four songs were sung; the same that were sung at the funeral of President McKinley, and the service was the simple ritual of the Methodist church.

The house, on its Market and Louis streets side, was roped off to restrain the crowds, which thronged the neighboring thoroughfare.

The body, in its black casket, rested in its flowered place in the so-called "Campaign Office" in the identical spot where President McKinley's body lay, after the Buffalo tragedy.

President Roosevelt, Vice President Fairbanks and Cabinet Members Root, [illegible], occupied seats in the parlor across the hall. Relatives and immediate friends of the family were seated in the hall and adjoining rooms.

While the services were being conducted by the Rev. Dr. Buxton, of the First Methodist Episcopal church, and the Rev. Dr. Holmes, formerly pastor of the same church, all business and amusement in Canton stood idle.

Judge Henry W. Harter, John C. Lueber, Joseph Blechele, Robert W. Cassidy and George B. Frease, who were honorary pallbearers at the funeral of President McKinley, and Austin Lynch, R. S. Shields and Judge C. C. Bow were the pallbearers.

When the services in the cemetery were over, the presidential party returned immdiately to the Baltimore and Ohio depot and there boarded the train for Indianapolis.

SULPHUR BRINGS HEALTH.

Everybody needs to take sulphur at this season. Nothing like it to purify the blood, clear up the complexion and remove "that tired feeling." But the only way to take it is in liquid form. Hancock's Liquid Sulphur taken internally is the best Spring tonic. Applied externally Hancock's Liquid Sulphur quickly cures Eczema, Tetter, and all Skin Diseases. Hancock's, the only Liquid Sulphur Ointment, removes Pimples, Blackheads and Sores, and gives a beautiful soft, velvety skin. Your druggist sells it. It cured Edward D. Herring of Frederick, Md., of a bad case of Eczema, and he writes: "My face is as smooth as an infant's."

Negro Hanged for Assault.

McDonough, Ga., May 31.—Buck High was hanged here Wednesday. His neck was broken by the fall, and he died almost instantly. He was convicted at the April term this year of Henry superior court for criminal assault, and sentenced to be hanged. The victim was a 4-year-old girl of a prominent white man, and the crime was committed the latter part of March. The prison commission and Governor Terrell were appealed to by High's counsel, but they declined to interfere, and High paid the penalty for his crime.

"Uncle Joe" Addresses Students.

Greensboro, N. C., May 31.—Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, of the house of representatives addressed the students and faculty of Guilford college, within two miles of the place of his birth, the occasion being the annual commencement exercises of the college. His speech dealt mainly with the wonderful progress of the country, and especially of North Carolina and the south. He declared that no part of the country and no part of the south has made greater strides in recent years than North Carolina.

New Railroad Chartered.

Atlanta, May 31.—The Fitzgerald, Ocilla and Broxton Railroad company was granted a charter by Secretary of State Philip Cook Wednesday. This is another of the small railroad lines which are springing up in abundance in south Georgia, and rapidly developing that section of the state.

MOTHERHOOD

The first requisite of a good mother is good health, and the experience of maternity should not be approached without careful physical preparation, as a woman who is in good physical condition transmits to her children the blessings of a good constitution.

Preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from native roots and herbs, more successfully than by any other medicine because it gives tone and strength to the entire feminine organism, curing displacements, ulceration and inflammation, and the result is less suffering and more children healthy at birth. For more than thirty years has been the standby of American mothers in preparing for childbirth.

Note what Mrs. James Chester, of 427 W. 35th St., New York says in this letter:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"I wish every expectant mother knew about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. A neighbor who had learned of its great value at this trying period of a woman's life urged me to try it and I did so, and I cannot say enough in regard to the good it did me. I recovered quickly and am in the best of health now."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly a successful remedy for the peculiar weaknesses and ailments of women.

It has cured almost every form of Female Complaints, Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation, Ulcerations and Organic Diseases of Women and is invaluable in preparing for Childbirth and during the Change of Life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free.

PROMINENT VISITOR FROM SOUTH AFRICA

PRAISED THE UNIVERSITY

This Distinguished American is Traveling Through Florida, Making Special Study of the Citrus Family, Its Diseases, Etc.

Hon. Charles P. Loundsbury, entomologist for Cape Colony, South Africa, has been one of Gainesville's distinguished visitors for the past three or four days, during which time he saw a great deal to interest him.

Mr. Loundsbury is an American, a highly educated gentleman and a man well known and well versed in his profession. He has been in Florida for some time on an important mission, his visit being for the purpose of studying the methods of orange culture, as well as the various insect pests and fungus diseases of the citrus family. He has visited and inspected several of the largest and most important groves of the State, and has conferred with a number of the world's experts on citrus fruit culture, who own groves in various sections of Florida. This investigation, he says, has proved valuable to him, and it affords an opportunity to study from nature.

Mr. Loundsbury, who is a gentleman of affable nature, very entertaining and pleasing of manner, arrived in time to witness several of the commencement exercises of the University of Florida, and complimented the University very highly. He also visited the University and experiment station, at which time he became the guest of Dr. E. H. Sellards, Prof. H. S. Fawcett and E. W. Berger.

"Champ" Clark Sees Only Bryan.

Savannah, Ga., May 31.—Champ Clark, member of congress from Missouri, can see nothing but Bryan on the democratic horizon; he also believes the Bryan sun is rising—not setting. He doesn't take much stock in the "favorite son" idea. He thinks Bryan is going to be nominated for president and that he is going to be elected by a united democracy. Mr. Clark believes the Republicans are hopelessly divided. He thinks there is going to be much of a row in G. O. P. circles before their candidate for president is named, and he would not be surprised to see Roosevelt run again if Taft is turned down in Ohio.

Twelve Cars Wrecked.

Shellman, Ga., May 31.—An eastbound through freight train was wrecked on the Central railroad yards Wednesday morning. The train was drawn by two engines. The train parted by the pulling out of a drawhead, one mile west of the depot. It is down grade from this point to the yards. The engineer, unconscious of the accident to his train, slowed down for the station, and the wreck resulted, piling 12 cars in a heap just opposite the depot.

$10,000 Worth of Cotton.

Mansfield, Ga., May 31.—R. L. Middlebrooks, a prosperous planter of the Starrsville neighborhood, has disposed of the remnant of his last year's cotton crop, representing 107 bales, of an average of 500 pounds each, for which he received 12½ cents per pound. The total amount realized for the sale was $9,687.

Heat on Tobacco Improves it Like Roasting Improves Green Coffee. Heat Develops the Stimulating Aroma and Taste found in Schnapps Tobacco and Coffee

Three ways are used by farmers for curing and preparing their tobacco for the market; namely sun cured, air cured and flue cured. The old and cheap way is called air cured; the later discovery and improved way is called flue cured.

In flue curing the tobacco is taken from the fields and racked in barns especially built to retain heat and there subjected to a continuous high temperature, produced by the direct heat of flame heated flues, which brings out in the tobacco that stimulating taste and aroma that expert roasting develops in green coffee. These similar processes give to both tobacco and coffee the cheering and stimulating quality that popularizes their use.

The quality of tobacco depends much on the curing process and the kind of soil that produces it, as expert tests prove that this flue cured tobacco, grown in the famous Piedmont region, requires and takes less sweetening than tobacco grown in any other section of the United States and has a wholesome, stimulating, juicy, full tobacco taste that satisfies tobacco hunger. That's why chewers prefer Schnapps, because Schnapps cheers more than any other chewing tobacco, and that's why chewers of Schnapps pass the good thing along—one chewer makes other chewers, until the fact is established that there are more chewers and more pounds of tobacco chewed to the population in states where Schnapps tobacco is sold than there are in those states where Schnapps has not yet been offered to the trade.

A 10c. plug of Schnapps is more economical than a much larger 10c. plug of cheap tobacco. Sold at 50c. per pound in 5c. cuts. Strictly 10 and 15 cent plugs.

RECEIPTS SHOW DECREASE.

Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Reports Shows Million Shortage.

New York, May 31.—The report of the Pacific Mail Steamship company, which is the outlet to the Orient of the Harriman lines, shows a falling off of nearly a million dollars in receipts compared with the previous fiscal year.

The total receipts for the year ended on April 30, 1907, were $4,839,244, which is $865,092 less than in 1906. Of this total decrease $853,871 was due to falling off in the receipts from the operation of steamers. This item was explained by President Harriman as follows:

"Part of the decrease in operations of steamers resulted from the fact that the trans-Pacific line made four less trips this year than last, but by far the greater part was the result of diversion of traffic to other channels during the re-establishment in San Francisco, of stores, warehouses, hotel accommodations and other accessories which are required in carrying on an extensive commerce and which were entirely destroyed and scattered by the great fire, also from the lower rates on ocean tonnage and from the unsettled civil conditions in the Central American republics, which reduced very materially the company's traffic in these states."

GENTLE SPRING.

It is within the range of possibility that a connection may after a while be drawn between what some people call "Spring fever" (meaning thereby that sensation of nothing wrong in particular, but that all is not just right) and that very prevalent malady, dyspepsia. At any rate, physicians who have used a prescription composed of ¼ oz. Fluid Extract of Buchu, 1 oz. Bulso Mixture, ¼ oz. Fluid Extract Gentian Compound and 15 ozs. water in treating dyspepsia have found that the medicine is not only wonderfully efficacious in dyspepsia cases, but that it is also an admirable "Spring tonic," and exactly what many people need at this season of the year. Most succesful results are said to follow the use of the preparation in doses of a tablespoonful administred three times a day. The prescription, which any good pharmacist can put up, contains nothing in the least degree harmful and would seem to be well worth a trial.

Well Known Sea Captain Dies.

Mobile, Ala., May 31.—Captain Alonzo A. McLean, one of the best known ship masters on the Atlantic and gulf coasts, died here Wednesday. He was a native of New Brunswick, N. S., and followed the sea for forty years. He was 58 years of age.

PURSUED ACROSS OCEAN.

Alleged Uxoricide and Woman Companion Are Captured.

Cleveland, O., May 31.—Search for an alleged murderer and his accomplice, lasting 18 months, ended here in the arrest of Franz Just and a woman giving the name of Mary Just, who were taken from a house at 4121 Clark avenue, S. W., by local detectives.

Chief of Police Kohler says the authorities of Duidig, Rhenish Province, Germany, have ordered him to hold the man for the murder of his wife, and the woman as an accomplice in the crime. The prisoners deny the charge.

According to the police, the murder of Mrs. Just was followed by the elopement to this country of the husband and the woman now in custody.

7,500 in Great Euchre Game.

New York, May 31.—What probably was the greatest euchre party ever held in this country was engaged last night on the pier of Dreamland, Coney Island. The astonishing number of 7,500 men and women clustered about the cards. The Rev. John L. Belford, of the Church of the Nativity, Brooklyn, was in charge. The euchre was in aid of the church.

PREPARING FOR WAR.

Guatemala and Mexico on the Eve of Hostilities.

City of Mexico, Mexico, May 31.—Diaro De La Tarse prints a special message from the border town of Tuxtlarez which says that Guatemalan troops are throwing up entrenchments and mounting artillery opposite the town of Ocos. This information cannot at this time be officially confirmed, the government knowing nothing of the incident. The special message follows:

"We have just received in this city a message from Tapachula which says:

"The Guatemalan forces are actively throwing up entrenchments and constructing fortifications on the line opposite Ocos. Pieces of artillery are being brought from the center of the republic of Guatemala and mounted. The Twenty-fifth infantry has arrived here and Mexican troops are daily arriving and being placed along the border."

When you want a good job of printing done just take your copy to a printer and tell him to do you a good job, and he will. If you think you know more about the business than he does and select your paper and instruct him what type to use and all the little details, you will get a botch job. A printer working under instructions from one who knows nothing about the business, no matter if he is an expert, cannot get out a neat job.

There are 198,000 young, dashing, fascinating widows in New York City. Why don't they inaugurate a crusade against the South? One pretty widow as a rule creates a bigger sensation down this way than a whole bevy of young pretty girls. No widower or unmarried man seems able to escape their bewitching wiles. The most dignified and sedate fall an easy victim to their charms and Dan Cupid is kept eternally busy. The South is the place for fascinating widows.

It makes us very tired, indeed, to have merchants insist on us to urge the people to trade at home and not send away to mail order houses or big city stores for their goods, and when we go around to settle our accounts have presented to us a bill head printed away from home or receive copy for an ad written on a letter head which never "trade at home." Yes, we believe in it, but those who cry out so loud and persistently should certainly be first to set the example.

Possibly no town in the State with a population not greater than is claimed here, can boast of as many good horses as are owned by our local horsemen. Great as has been the future predicted for the automobile, man has manifested no great desire to forsake his old friend, the horse, and today fine roadsters are in greater demand than ever before. Not only are good roadsters eagerly sought, but those standard bred and of acknowledged speed are also coming in for their share of the honors.

THE SAME HERE.

There are business men in Tampa who would rather squander $100 on some fake advertising scheme that would place their card in a hotel register or in a fancy frame at the railroad station than to spend $10 for advertising space in the leading newspaper of this city. Their conception of good advertising permits them to do just such things. If they would look about them for a moment and consider they would find that the most successful firms of this city are patrons of the advertising columns of the newspapers, and that their appropriations for advertising space do not include hotel registers, fancy frames and similar worthless schemes. —Tampa News.

It is the same here. Last week many merchants who were never known to spend one penny for advertising in the local paper, put up big money for an ad in the Florida Agriculturist. They paid more for the ad for one issue than the same space would have cost in The Independent for two or three months, and they never got one cent returns for their expenditure. We checked up 15 advertisers who do not advertise, others who do advertise occasionally, and firms that haven't advertised locally for months. There seems to me no help for it.

The Independent editor labors fourteen hours a day, spends hundreds of dollars each year to send sample copies of the paper broadcast, is identified with every interest of the town, puts up money for every project, buys all his goods in St. Petersburg, pays out $3,500 salary to employes, and yet our merchants cannot see the value of advertising until some fake proposition comes along that is only distributed to the advertisers.

I asked one man who has spent $20 for space in The Agriculturist if he received any returns from his ad. He said nary a return. Acknowledged it was money wasted.

On the other hand the same day, a gentleman comes into the office and thanks us for selling for him a piece of land on which he made $400 profit. The land was sold simply on the strength of a small ten-line news item in The Independent.

The same man will move to St. Petersburg. He will buy lumber, hardware, and other building necessities. He will buy farming implements, household goods, and then groceries, and dry goods.

And he is only one of scores that The Independent has influenced to locate in St. Petersburg.

How many families has The Florida Agriculturist located in St. Petersburg?

Yet you paid it more money for one issue of a couple of hundred copies thrown around the advertisers than you pay The Independent in two months.—St. Petersburg Independent.

If every business man in Gainesville could do business on a strictly cash system it would be a blessing to us all. If we all had to pay cash we would learn to live within our means. It would save business men the expense of bookkeepers and the loss of bad debts, all of which some one has to pay for. If our town could gradually work into a strictly cash system it would be better for us all.

JULY NEW IDEA NOTES.

What a few prominent philanthropists and some public institutions and charities in our big cities are doing to lower the rate of infant mortality during our tropical summer is told about in an article on "Saving the Babies from the Cities' Heat" by Elizabeth Howard Westwood in the July number of the New Idea Woman's Magazine. In addition to its regular fresh-air activities for babies, and its floating hospitals, every city has its summer creches, where mothers may take their sick babies for a day of country air, away from the stifling breath of the tenements. The writer in her account gives an idea of the extent of this work, the many issues which it involves, and the magnificent co-operation of the varied movements, emphasizing that once the ignorance of tenement mothers is overcome the battle is half won. There are many valuable photographs which will give the reader a good idea of some of the difficulties which have to be overcome, and their effective remedies.

Fatal Mine Accident.

Steubenville, O., May 31.—While workmen were shifting a mining machine at the O. and P. Coal company's mine, at Yorkville, the current nippers connected with a poorly insulated cable let 500 volts into the machine. Andy Martinaki, a Polander aged 48, was electrocuted. John Kletti, an Austrian, was shocked and fell forward against a pick point, which ran into his stomach. He died from the wound received.

Volcano Still In Eruption.

Valparaiso, May 31.—The volcano Rinilahue is still in eruption discharging quantities of ashes. Lake Negra in the vicinity of the volcano has been drained by the water flowing through a crevasse which formed at its bottom.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

OLD RIVER GAMBLERS

A DRAMATIC GAME OF POKER.

The Hand That Brought Matters to a Climax and the Way It Was Played to a Finish on a Floating Gambling Palace on the White River.

In the palmy days of steamboating there were some palatial gambling houses which were run on houseboats. They plied the inland streams, stopping for days and weeks at points where the territory was promising and good play could be had, moving on when the territory was cleaned out and all of the "pigeons plucked."

An interesting story was told by a veteran river captain of an incident happening to a floating gambling house that was accustomed to travel up and down White river in Arkansas and fleece the opulent planters and river men by methods that were not at all in keeping with the rules of the game. The incident in question occurred at Indian Bay, Ark., then a prosperous village. At that time Indian Bay was a thriving metropolis, where all of the river packets landed to receive and discharge freight and passengers and where the planters of the fertile White river bottom lands came to buy their supplies and receive their mail, it being the only postoffice in a large territory.

The houseboat, which was fitted up in palatial style, with gambling rooms after the most approved fashion and a bar that would compare favorably in the magnificence of its mahogany fixtures with those of the best city hotels of the same period, was owned and run by two brothers.

It was the days of freeze out poker, when stakes were as high as one cared to play and where one player could take the pot without a show down if he only had sufficient coin to lay more upon the table than his opponents could muster. The brothers scorned the customary house men that gambling places employ and participated themselves in all of the games that were started. As a rule, they played a game ostensibly fair, but it was whispered about that they were more deft with the cards than was accredited to them by their victims, for they always won.

With persons of consequence they were careful of their play and to all appearances held strictly within the letter of the code which gamblers were supposed to observe. But with those of lesser importance they were not so particular, and they resorted to any means to part the unwary from his cash. It was a well known fact that the game never ran too high for them, and rumor had it that there was a fortune in the big safe of the private office of the brothers which opened off the bar.

There was a lanky Arkansas planter of uncertain ancestry who lived near Indian Bay, and this particular fall he harvested and sold a large cotton crop, realizing therefrom some $10,000, which he, as was then the custom, brought back from New Orleans, where he marketed his cotton, in cash. He was one of the regular victims of the brothers of the magnificent gambling houseboat and had contributed many dollars before this to the pile of coins stored away in the big safe.

Straightway upon his return to the bay he sought out the light fingered gentry of the houseboat and, with a few neighboring planters to fill out, started a big poker game, which waned and waxed and grew apace through several days and nights, throughout all of which time the lanky planter saw his cotton money dwindle away in a steady stream across the table to the opulent pile of chips before the brothers. So steadily did he lose that his suspicions became aroused, and on the evening of the last day which the boat was to remain at the bay, for the brothers had announced the time of their departure, he sat in the game fully satisfied that he was dealing with card sharks, and his mind made up to secure a square deal at any cost.

The grand coup of the houseboat brothers was to bide their time until a victim had secured an invincible hand, doubtless of their own fixing, and then after luring him on by tantalizing bets and raises to place upon the table every cent he possessed, to raise him further, bringing out a sackful of gold from the inexhaustible supply of the safe for that purpose. It had been a good season for the planters, excellent crops and high prices for cotton giving to all ample funds, and the brothers had reaped a rich harvest. At Indian Bay alone they had cleaned up something over $50,000. On this last night of their stay they expected to gather in the small leavings which had thus far escaped them. Two big games were going, each seven handed, all of the losing planters having flocked in for a last attempt to recoup their losses.

The lanky planter was the heaviest loser in the neighborhood, and he had posted his companions of his suspicions and cautioned them to watch carefully the play of the brothers, one of whom presided at either table. He had planned his espionage with exceeding care and had given explicit instructions to his friends to watch merely and say nothing, whatever they might discover, until he gave an agreed signal.

Steadily the luck ran against him until along toward 1 o'clock in the morning he picked up a hand containing four aces—as the game was then played a hand that could not be beaten. He opened the pot with a good stiff bet, which was promptly seen by the other players until it came the turn of the gambler, who sat at the planter's right. The gambler set in a stack of yellow chips, each worth $20, many inches in height. The planter, of course, saw the bet and raised for all the money he had before him. All the other players threw down their cards except the gambler, who, calling to a negro porter and whispering a word in his ear, sat in stolid indifference until the porter returned with a heavy stack of gold stenciled $10,000. This he promptly shoved to the center of the table turning with a sneering smile to the planter and requesting him to see the bet or lose the pot.

This was just the play the planter had anticipated, the grand coup which the brothers had employed with success at more than one place along the river, for such were the rules of freezeout poker. The lanky planter reached down into the pocket of his coat as if going after a roll of money. Instead he gave the preconcerted signal and came up with a six shooter, cocked and sighted fairly at the head of the gambler. As if but one mind controlled their movements, all the other players, except the two brothers, produced in a flash long, hungry looking six shooters.

It was a tense moment; not a soul seemed to breathe. The lanky planter was the master of the situation, and he appreciated the fact. Without moving from his seat or shifting the aim of his murderous looking revolver he called to the men at the other table, asking if they had seen anything questionable in the play. Two of the planters had seen the brothers slip cards from the bottom of the deck, and one, who had been busily counting the deck of cards upon the table since the denouement as unconcernedly as if a tragedy was not in progress in the room, now announced that the deck was short four cards and that the four aces were the missing ones. The brother at that table was searched, and the four missing aces were found in a little pocket inside his sleeve.

At the other table several crooked plays had been detected. A close examination of both decks showed that they were skillfully marked, and the four aces were found to be what gamblers technically call "strippers."

Each of the planters produced memorandum books in which had been kept a careful account of their losses throughout their play on the houseboat. Altogether these losses totaled $78,000. Leaving the table for a moment and forcing one of the trembling negro attendants to open the big safe at the muzzle of his revolver, the lanky planter returned loaded down with sacks of gold and bundles of greenbacks. This array of wealth he piled upon the table and, appointing a grim guard for each of the gamblers, carefully sorted out the money into piles of $1,000 each. Then he made a reckoning of each man's losses and paid to each one the sum his memorandum book showed.

After distributing to each man what was due to him and carefully counting out his own money, something more than $15,000, he turned to the brothers, now thoroughly cowed and trembling, fearful of summary punishment, and delivered to them a final message in an even, emotionless voice. He told them that he never repudiated a gambling debt or claimed back his losses when he had been beaten by a fair run of the cards or the skill of the player, but that he and his friends were not going to submit quietly to robbery, and crude robbery at that; that they had taken only what was due to them and not a dollar more. His peroration directed the gamblers to make themselves scarce in that community and never again to show their faces on White river under penalty of intimacy with a hempen rope. Until morning he gave them to take away themselves and their boat.

Leaving piles of gold and bills, the surplus from the safe after deducting the losses of himself and friends, scattered in confusion over the table, the planter and his companions stalked in stately dignity from the boat.

It was less than an hour before the houseboat cast off its moorings and floated away with the current, negroes aiding with the sweeps. That was the last ever seen or heard of the brothers or their gambling houseboat on any of the rivers of Arkansas.—Kansas City Star.

THE POCKET SAVINGS BANK EPIDEMIC RAGES FIERCELY ....IN GAINESVILLE....

Beneficent epidemics are scarce, but such a one has struck Gainesville, and people of every station and occupation have the fever.

It is most interesting and instructive to study the constantly changing line of applicants for Pocket Banks as it files through The Sun's business office. There is the mother, bringing her daughter with her and securing a bank for the girl, another for herself, and inquiring anxiously whether she may have another for the boy who is at work. She receives it promptly.

Boys come—some are steady, serious-faced chaps who have begun to think on their own account, and who ask questions about the operation of the scheme which show the results of rubbing up against the world.

Then the High School girls and boys, gay and active, while the workman and business man "slip in" during the noon hour to get a bank for the boy or girl at home, after asking one or two leading questions to make sure there is no joke about the 25 cents.

.....THE PLAN IN OUTLINE.....

PHIFER BROS., BANKERS

Good for an additional 25 cents when a deposit of one dollar or more in cash is made, will be given to everyone who avail themselves of this opportunity. Make an investigation and you will never regret it.
